Cool Air Brings Relief from Heat; 125 Persons Die

Extreme Hot Weather Affects Our Way of Living

WEATHER REPORT: It may be cooler today, which was tomorrow yesterday when this was written. But nevertheless a few minutes before this dissertation was started it was an official 105 degrees Fahrenheit at the U. S. government thermometer I visited and inspected at the Clyde Pittman residence at 1 p. m.

I know we have hot weather sometime every summer but it seems like the summer we are enduring at the moment is the worst of all. Of course it isn't so but it's hard to be convinced otherwise at the moment.

Anyhow, we've had at least three days in a row where the mercury went well over 100 and the boys and girls who in May were saying "we don't need air-conditioning where we live" probably are wishing they had it.

And hot weather affects our way of living.

I called Lawrence Calufetti out at the swimming pool and he said that business had picked up plenty this week. The pool was down Monday because of trouble in the filtration machinery, but it was open Tuesday. And Tuesday was the biggest day of the year so far.

* * *

A manager of a large grocery here, Merom Hausser of Krogers, said the buying habits of his customers had changed greatly since the heat wave came.

"Sales of head lettuce, tomatoes and cucumbers have doubled and tripled," he stated. "So have lemons and frozen lemonade and other cold drink items. Items you have to cook yourself are down in sales."

* * *

Tom Wolf of the Coca-Cola Bottling Co., which also makes Wolf's Beverages and B-1, said his plant was having the heaviest week of the year, with trucks going out on extra runs.

* * *

And now to that commodity of commodities in weather like we've been having—ice. The Harrisburg Ice Co. reported that ice sales have doubled during the heat wave.

"Most of it is going to persons with mechanical ice makers who need more than they can make," G. C. Benson, head of the local plant, stated. "Our sales of frozen lemon concentrate for lemonade also have doubled during the hot weather."

* * *

Up in the telephone office, fans behind two 100-pound cakes of ice, blowing toward the switchboards, are helping keep the operators cool these hot days. The idea worked so well Manager Millard Lynch has set up the same system in the front office.

* * *

The heat has been hard on poultry, too. Paul Halbersleben was saying that seven of his chickens just dropped over dead in the heat a couple of days ago.

Mother of Mrs. Heze McCuan Dies

Mrs. Emma Jones, wife of the late Will Jones of Goreville, died yesterday in the Creal Springs Nursing home.

She was the mother of Mrs. Heze McCuan, 710 South Main, Harrisburg, Mrs. Florence Parks, Marion, and Floyd Howell, Marion, and the grandmother of Delores Parks, Harrisburg, and Jackie Parks, Marion.

The body will lie in state at the family home, 1100 South Court street in Marion.

The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Goreville church. Rev. Ned Sutton and Rev. Jim Vinyard will officiate, and burial will be in Goreville.

Lightning Hits Barn; Building, 3,000 Bales Of Hay Destroyed

A barn and 3,000 bales of hay were destroyed this morning in a fire on the Noel Bond farm in Brushy township. The barn was hit by lightning. All other contents of the barn were removed.

Eight Killed as Violent Storms Hit Many Areas

27 Deaths Reported At St. Louis; 33 In Kansas City Area

By United Press

A welcome mass of cool Canadian air brought relief today from one of the most intense and widespread heat waves on record.

Relief came after the searing heat had caused at least 125 deaths. Eight other persons died in violent storms which sent temperatures plunging late Wednesday.

A blazing sun still scorched the Deep South and no immediate relief was forecast there. But forecasters said any 100-degree readings today would be south of a line running from southern Kentucky to central Oklahoma.

The advance of the cool air was marked by destructive storms late Wednesday in New York state, Pennsylvania and elsewhere.

Two Die in Storms

Atlanta, Ga., got three inches of rain and lightning set fire to more than 30 houses there in a storm accompanied by hail and high winds. In Pennsylvania, one man was killed by a falling chimney and another by a section of a church steeple toppled by a storm.

At St. Louis, where 27 persons had died of the heat since Monday, the temperature was due to rise today to only 92 compared with recent readings of more than 100.

Thirty-three heat deaths were reported in Kansas City, Mo., and the outlying Missouri area, and three others in other sections of Missouri. Kansas reported 3 4 deaths, 11 of them in mental hospitals. Oklahoma had 16, Illinois 4, Iowa 2 and Kentucky and Texas 1 each.

The long-awaited cooler air brought violent and destructive storms to many areas.

City after city reported shrieking winds and torrential downpours as the cool air smashed head-on into the hot, muggy atmosphere.

Temperature Drops in Minutes

Temperatures skidded in matter of minutes and millions of Americans had their first comfortable night's sleep in days.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said the Canadian air was pushing into southern Missouri and northern Oklahoma. But the heat wave still ruled in the southern Mississippi Valley and southern Plains.

The heat claimed most of its victims in the Great Plains, where temperatures have soared past the 110 mark.

The deaths accompanied such all time record-breaking temperatures as 117 at Butler, Mo.; 115 at

Cooler Weather Brings Relief To Wilted Illinois

By United Press

Cooler weather came to heat-wilted Illinois today. It was expected to last until Saturday when temperatures again are slated to range near the 100 degree mark.

The week-long heat wave was broken as a cool air mass moved across the state from the northwest late Wednesday and early today. But before temperatures dropped, the heat wave gave Illinois a final searing blast that broke records.

At Springfield, a high of 113.8 degrees was recorded in the downtown weather station where the previous all-time record of 109.5 degrees was recorded July 14, 1936. The new "official" station at capitol airport reported 112 degrees.

Jacksonville is Hottest

Jacksonville had a state high of 113.5, Decatur had 113, Quincy 112, Vandalia 112, Rantoul 109, Peoria 99, Chicago 95, Moline 93, and Rockford 88.

At Paducah, Ky., near southern Illinois, the high temperature was 102.

The Weather Bureau said the hottest weather Wednesday was in a belt across south-central Illinois.

Wednesday's heat caused the second heat prostration death of the week in Springfield, complicated a water crisis in Bloomington, and reduced the already-short water supplies in a number of downstate cities.

Sangamon County Coroner W. C. Telford said Alfred Ward, 40, Springfield, died of heat prostration. Ward, an employe of a garbage collection firm, became ill after going home from work and died shortly thereafter in St. John's Hospital.

DR. WM. L. HAUPTMANN, who finished a two year residency in Pediatrics July 1 in the St. Louis University Group of hospitals, will report Aug. 9 to the Air Force for three weeks' orientation at Montgomery, Ala., and will be stationed at Park Base, San Francisco, Calif., with initial classification as Pediatrician. Dr. Hauptmann and Mrs. Hauptmann and their daughter, Mary Ann, who have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. E. Hauptmann for the past two weeks, left Wednesday for Pinehurst Lodge, Lake Benedict, Minn., where they will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adelord Gendreau.

Czechs Free 7 U. S. Soldiers Held 12 Days

WAIDHAUS, Germany (UP) — Czech border guards carrying machine guns released seven U. S. soldiers today after holding them prisoner for 12 days on trumped-up spy charges.

The Americans walked to freedom through the barbed-wire-lined streets of this village on the Iron Curtain frontier after West German and Red Czech border guards had solemnly exchanged "receipts" for their safe return to U. S. Army custody.

The seven, headed by Capt. Jack M. Davis, Raytown, Mo., were seized by the Reds when they wandered across the forbidden Communist frontier on a July 4 outing.

They were red-eyed, as if from lack of sleep, but otherwise appeared none the worse for their imprisonment in a Communist military barracks, somewhere inside Red Czechoslovakia.

The seven Americans wore the same uniforms, now wrinkled and dirty, they were wearing when Czech guards seized them while they were riding along the frontier in a truck.

Prague Radio later charged the seven men had "penetrated Czech territory" on "an espionage mission."

Captain Davis is the highest ranking man in the group. All seven are assigned to the 816th Field Artillery Battalion.

In addition to Davis, the battalion surgeon, the other soldiers, all enlisted men, were identified as Cpl. John F. Glasson, Oakdale, Calif.; Pfc. Leonard D. Tennis, Alliance, Ohio; Pfc. George Switzer, Milburn, Neb.; Pfc. Jerry W. Griffith, Springfield, Ohio; Pvt. Richard J. Jumper, Booneville, Mo.; and Pvt. Ross F. McGinnis, Greensburg, Pa.

To Discuss Unemployment With Stratton

Supervisors to Send Committee With Other Groups

The Saline County Board of Supervisors will send a committee of three members to Springfield along with representatives of other organizations to discuss with Gov. William Stratton the unemployment situation in Saline county.

The group will be named by Chairman William Alfred Smith. The request for the three members was made by Tom Maxwell, board member from Eldorado, who said he had been contacted by Eldorado's Labor Association for Industrial Development. The LAID organization will send a delegation to confer with Stratton just as soon as an appointment can be secured.

Contract Unsatisfactory

Today's meeting was quite extensive. After returning as unsatisfactory a contract calling for $1.50 a day for housing, feeding, and giving ordinary medical care to federal prisoners who might be kept in the Saline county jail, the board:

Passed a resolution presented by Carrier Mills Highway Superintendent Joel Hawkins asking that the county meet half the cost of a bridge across a drainage ditch in Section 14 of Carrier Mills township, the funds to come from a special levy set up by the county to take care of such situations when the township is unable to meet the cost;

Approved resolutions calling for the extension of State Aid roads in Tate and Independence townships;

Transfer Funds

Approved transfer of $5,000 from the collector's fund to the county officers' fund, $10,000 from the collector's fund to the general account, $500 from the liquor fund to the account for extra clerk hire and $5,000 from the collector's fund to the tuberculosis fund, upon motion of Herman McFarlin of Independence township;

Included in its 1946 ordinance on regulation of amusements, a $25 license fee for drive-in theatres;

Approved the building committee report presented by W. O. Douglas, Harrisburg township, which calls for the patching and painting of the three rooms occupied by the county superintendent of schools and the three rooms occupied by the Child Welfare worker;

Gave Chairman Smith the authority to appoint a secretary of the Saline County Tuberculosis Board to replace Mrs. Everett Stricklin, who said she was resigning the end of July.

Mercury Drops With .38 Inch Rain

The weather bureau predicted a break in the heat wave and the weather bureau was right.

The mercury, which stayed fast at 105 degrees here from 1 to 4 p. m. yesterday, had dropped 33 degrees to a comfortable 72 at 8 a. m. today.

And the accompanying showers were enough to help the grass in town, at least. Harrison Kibler reported that .38 inch of rain fell up to 8 a. m. in Harrisburg. However, there were reports from areas nearby that the rain clouds forgot to do their duty there.

JAYCEES HAVE CAKE AND EAT IT, TOO—Harrisburg Jaycee president M. H. "Pusher" Lynch is shown accepting a cake baked in the shape of an Ellis motor freight truck from Lowden Pankey, on behalf of Pankey's Bakery, at last night's Jaycee meeting. Pankey created the cake as a novel means of congratulating the Jaycees on bringing the Ellis truck terminal to Harrisburg, and the huge confection was enjoyed by everyone present. Mrs. Emily Taft Douglas Visits Here, Hits GOP 'Trickle Down' Tax Policy

Mrs. Emily Taft Douglas, wife of United States Senator Paul H. Douglas, was in Harrisburg for a few hours Wednesday afternoon and met with Democratic workers in an open house at Nick's cafe and later appeared on a radio program from station WEBQ. This was one stop of a week-long tour of southern Illinois in behalf of her husband's campaign for reelection.

Accompanying Mrs. Douglas to Harrisburg was Kenneth Gray of West Frankfort, Democratic congressional candidate, who spoke briefly in behalf of his candidacy.

Criticizing the administration's economic and tax programs, Mrs. Douglas said the "trickle down" theory was still the program of the Republicans. "They believe in giving all tax relief at the top of our economic ladder and state that it will 'trickle down' through the entire system and that everyone is helped.

Asks Support on Record

"But the Democratic program is to give help at the bottom and build a firm economic foundation. Tax relief for the working man will give him more to spend, increasing consumption, which in turn will increase production, making for more employment. That is the program of the Democratic party," Mrs. Douglas declared.

She pointed out that her husband was one of the first to advocate social security and old age assistance and was a strong champion of the R. E. A. program.

In closing Mrs. Douglas said "In the Senate at the close of his first year, the newspaper men covering the Capital chose my husband as number three of all Senators. But by the next year, they revised this to number one, a vote in which political scientists of the nation corroborated. On his record, therefore, we are asking for your support."

County Candidates Present

Mrs. Douglas spoke at the court house in Carmi last night, was on the program at the Pinckneyville fair this afternoon and at Chester this evening. Friday she will be in Carbondale and West Frankfort. Saturday she returns to Washington, D. C.

Steve Mitchell, chairman, Democratic Central committee, introduced the speakers. County candidates present were William Barrett for sheriff, Raymond Gardner for superintendent of schools and Trafton Dennis for judge. Don Garrison and Maynard Cannon, candidates for county clerk and treasurer respectively, were unable to attend.

Rites Friday for Mrs. Libby Dove

Funeral services for Mrs. Libby Dove, former Harrisburg resident who for the past ten years made her home with a daughter, Miss Lorene Dove, in St. Louis, Mo., will be held Friday at 2 p. m. in the chapel of the Gaskins funeral home.

Rev. Joe Morman, pastor of the First Baptist church where she was a member, will officiate, and burial will be in Sunset Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Dove was born in Michigan, on October 9, 1868, to Ace and Kate Hudson. She married David W. Dove who died several years ago.

Surviving are two children: Hubert Dove, Joliet, and Miss Lorene Dove, St. Louis, Mo.; four grandchildren, Fred Dove and Alma Johnson, both of Joliet, and Glen and David Dove, both of St. Louis, Mo., and nine great-grandchildren.

The body now lies in state at the Gaskins funeral home.

NLRB Curtails Jurisdiction Over Disputes

WASHINGTON (UP) — The National Labor Relations Board has announced that it is curtailing its jurisdiction over disputes involving defense industries, newspapers, radio and television stations, retail stores, utilities, transit companies and certain other businesses.

The new conditions mean the board will no longer handle elections, unfair labor or management practice disputes involving some of the smaller business organizations.

The board also announced it will no longer take cases involving public restaurants.

The changes take effect immediately and apply to cases already before the board as well as to future cases.

West Works Out Compromise Peace Proposals

GENEVA (UP) — The West worked out new Indochina peace proposals today that would permit French Premier Pierre Mendes-France to obtain an honorable cease-fire before his Monday deadline.

Mendes-France and his top aide, Jean Chauvel, conferred for an hour with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden in setting forth the West's terms. Informed sources said they covered:

1. A cease-fire line, partitioning war-ravaged Viet Nam on or near the 16th parallel.

2. Provision for France to retain the Tonkin Gulf port of Haiphong, at least temporarily, as a staging area for the French expeditionary corps.

3. Neutralization of Laos and Cambodia, the two smaller states of Indochina.

4. Postponement of Vietnamese elections until conditions become more settled.

5. Exclusion of Communist nations from the international control commission to be set up to guarantee the armistice.

Confident of Settlement

The French premier invited Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov to dinner tonght and the two are expected to discuss this Western formula for settlement. Mendes-France also planned to consult with Red China's premier and foreign minister, Chou En-Lai, probably Friday. It will be the third meeting between the two men.

Both the West and the Communists appeared confident of a settlement by Monday night, although all main issues still are unsettled.

Mendes-France and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden returned to Geneva Wednesday night after concluding a Big Three meeting that brought U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles to Paris in a sudden, dramatic flight.

Most observers in Paris agreed the meeting of the Big Three diplomats was a personal triumph for Mendes-France.

National Road Program Seems Assured

BOLTON LANDING, N. Y. (UP) — A vast national road building program appeared certain today regardless of whether state governors accept President Eisenhower's 50 billion dollar 10-year plan.

The governors wound up their 46th annual conference with a decision to make their own study before doing anything about the presidential proposal.

They probably will meet in Washington late this year to thresh out with Mr. Eisenhower what role the federal government will play in a field which many contend belongs to the states alone.

None of them quarreled with the idea that bigger and better roads are needed. Many have plans for their own state programs already under way.

The arguments in favor of some federal participation were based on coordination to establish a truly national network of particular value in event of another war. Federal help in financing turnpike financing, particularly if the bond market gets tight, also was mentioned.

A resolution adopted at the closing business session of the 46th annual Governors' Conference was far milder than some of the remarks made after the Eisenhower plan was unveiled on opening day.

The governors decided they were "highly pleased by the President's willingness and determination to work with the states" on the problem. They made no mention of their long-time demand that the federal government quit levying gasoline taxes and get out of the road building field.

In another development of the closing session, 75-year-old Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina, winding up a long career of public service, helped make his friend, Gov. Robert Kennon of Louisiana, chairman of the conference for the coming year.

Modern Rental Housing Needed, Jaycees Report

Modern rental housing for families connected with the Ellis Truck Lines terminal, soon to be located here, is still in the critical stage, Jaycee housing chairman Vern Joyner reported at last night's meeting.

Joyner pointed out that a great many semi-modern homes had been offered, but that a better type of housing was desired by most families wanting to move here. He added that owners of semi-modern rental property could secure a much greater return on their investments by modernizing their properties, since the Ellis families are willing to pay a better rental for more modern properties. The possibility of asking local builders to build some modern rental homes is being investigated, Joyner said, with one individual already indicating interest in such a proposition. He asked that anyone with desirable rental property which will be available now or in the near future to contact him, ph. 461, or any Jaycee.

Also at last night's regular meeting, Bill Williams submitted his resignation as the local chapter's state director, and John Richard Small was appointed by the club. He will attend the state board meeting at Mattoon July 30 and 31, and report back to the club on the activities at the conference.

Bud Pool was a guest of Jack Davenport at the meeting.

Believes Formula Reached for Unity by Allies

Reports from Paris Say Conversations Lead to Compromise

WASHINGTON (UP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today that his urgent talks with the British and French in Paris brought an understanding on Indochina "much more complete than has heretofore existed."

"I believe that we have found a formula for constructive Allied unity which will have a beneficial effect on the Geneva conference and it carries no danger that the United States will abandon its principles," Dulles said on his arrival here.

Dulles arrived at National Airport from Paris and then went directly to the White House for a conference with President Eisenhower.

Dulles discussed the Indochina peace talks with the Communists at Geneva with French Prime Minister Pierre Mendes-France and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden.

Compromise Reported

Dulles flew to Paris Monday for emergency Allied talks before France enters its showdown peace negotiations with the Communists at Geneva. Reports from the French capital say the conversations resulted in a compromise in which:

1. The United States will refuse to accept "primary responsibility" for any Indochina peace but will, in a switch of plans, send Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith to Geneva for the final phase of the truce talks.

2. The United States will "respect" — or at least do nothing to violate—the partition of Viet Nam and neutralization of Laos and Cambodia. In return, France and Britain have agreed in principle to help guarantee free Southeast Asia against further Red aggression under the terms of the U. S.-sponsored Far East Defense pact.

Ferguson Approves

Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.), a Republican leader and a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, endorsed the decision to send Smith to Geneva because if there is any chance to prevent a sellout, "we ought to be there."

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) also a foreign relations committeeman, said Smith belongs in Geneva since "I don't think we should ever abdicate our leadership."

Committee Chairman Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) said Smith's return apparently is a tip-off that Dulles made progress in ironing out Allied differences on Southeast Asia at Paris.

Smith will leave Friday for Geneva where the Communists are scheduled to submit their formal peace terms. They are believed to have given Mendes-France and Eden a general outline, however before Dulles' trip.

Diplomats Uncertain

Diplomats here said they have had no indication whether the United States will be able to support the impendin gtruce, or whether it will have to disassociate itself from it. There also was no confirmation here that this country would guarantee a pact splitting Viet Nam.

Informants said Dulles left for Paris only after telling Mendes-France in a special message, that:

1. The United States is sympathetic to France's plight in fighting the Communists over eight years at a great cost in human and material treasure.

2. It is up to France and its allies in Indochina to decide if peace was desirable and on what terms it might be written. The United States was not a primary participant in the war and was reserving its final position.

3. France must understand that the United States is flatly opposed to Communism annd its expansionism in Indochina or anywhere else; that these principles are important to the American people and therefore must be preserved.

Mrs. Silas Overton Dies at Eldorado

Mrs. Ida B. Overton, 70, wife of Silas Overton, died today at 1:30 a. m. at her home on University street in the College Heights addition to Eldorado. She had been in failing health for around five years.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ernest Patton, Eldorado, and a son, Lloyd Overton, Paducah, Ky.; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The funeral will be Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Restitution church north of Eldorado where she was a member. Rev. Walter Wiggins, Oregon, Ill., will officiate, and burial will be in Poplar cemetery.

The body now lies in state at the Bean and Tanner funeral home.

Announce June 12 Wedding in Texas of Miss Marilyn Nichols, Bill Dabney Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dabney Jr.

In a seven o'clock ceremony Saturday, June 12, Miss Marilyn Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Nichols, Vandalia, and Bill Dabney Jr., son of Mrs. Celia Dabney and the late Bill Dabney, exchanged wedding vows in the Ector Baptist church in Ector, Texas. Rev. Warren Littleford performed the double ring service.

The soloist Bill Richardson sang "Because," "O Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor length gown of white taffeta, fashioned with cap sleeves and matching mitts. The fitted bodice was designed with a band of lace which extended around the hip line. Her ficor length veil was of hand made Belgian lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Saraley Dennis, friend of the bride, maid of honor, wore pastel green taffeta and carried a bouquet of red roses. The flower girl, Linda Porter, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Porter, Sheridan, was also dressed in pastel green and scattered red rose petals.

Rev. Dale Crockett of New Shawneetown was best man, and ushers were A2/c Bob Nichols, Duluth, Minn., and Rev. Bill Porter, Sheridan.

Johnny Thompson, son of Mr. John Thompson, Vandalia, was ringbearer.

The bride's mother was adorned in a figured nylon dress with white carnations, and Mrs. Dabney was dressed in navy blue linen with white carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was held. The table was decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Hostesses were Betty Trushell, Mrs. Betty Porter and daughter, Sharon Porter.

The bride is a junior at Southern Illinois university and the bridegroom is a senior there. They will reside in Carbondale.

TO WED AUGUST 1ST—Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wagner, residents of Harrisburg who recently moved on Raleigh Route 1, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Cecelia Lee, to Fred Jobe Jr., son of Mrs. Easter Jobe, Evansville, Ind. Miss Wagner attended Southern Illinois university where she was a major in physical education and a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma social sorority. She is now employed as director of recreation at Evansville state hospital and Mr. Jobe is employed in the Hydrotherapy department there. The couple will be married Sunday, August 1, at the home of the bride's parents.

B. and P. W. Club Has Musical Program

The July dinner meeting of the Harrisburg Business and Professional Women's club was held Tuesday evening in the Fellowship hall of the First Christian church.

Miss Mary Richardson gave the devotion after which a delicious two-course dinner was served.

The president, Miss Meriam Evans, conducted the business session during which the secretary and treasurer's reports were accepted and Mrs. James Lands was voted to become a member of the club. An account of the Program Planning meeting of District No. 13, which was held in Carmi Friday evening, July 9, for the presidents and chairmen of the various committees, was given by the president.

Announcement was made of the Leadership conferences to be held at Alton, August 1; Kankakee, August 8, and Decatur, August 22.

The theme of the program, under the direction of the music chairman, Mrs. Ruth Thompson, was "Music and Songs." Mrs. Thompson defined music as the universal language and stated that music was a luxury and an added pleasure in the lives of people.

The program presented was as follows: Instrumental duets, "No No Nanette" and "Que Vie" by Mrs. Laura Rice and Mrs. Thompson; piano solo, Miss Richardson, who played "Egyptian Patrol;" vocal duet, "When You and I Were Young Maggie," by Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Thompson; history of the most selected religious hymns by Miss Richardson; organ and piano duets by Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Thompson, selections were "Ava Maria," "Were You There," and "When You Come to the End of the Road." Miss Mary Price sang a solo, "End of a Perfect Day," and the program included group singing by the club.

Mrs. H. C. Lewis, program chairman, stated that the August meeting will be a breakfast on August 10 at 7 a. m. at the First Christian church.

Calendar of Meetings

An ice cream social will be held Saturday, July 17, at the home of Oral Walls for the benefit of the Big Ridge cemetery fund. Homemade ice cream will be served. Donations of cakes will be appreciated.

A picnic by families who composed the Busy Bee Sewing club at Brushy between 1925 and 1940 will be held at the old shelter at Karel park Sunday, July 18, at noon.

The Royal Daughters class of the Dorrisville Social Brethren church will meet at Karel park for a picnic today at 6:30 p. m.

The Pastor's Aid club of Mt. Pleasant Baptist church will sell fish and homemade sherbet Friday beginning at 4 p. m. in the church basement. The public is invited.

Midway lodge, No. 942, will hold its regular meeting tonight at 7:30. Work in the first degree. Everett Estes, N. G.

Pride of Arrow Rebekah lodge No. 234 will hold its regular meeting tonight at 7:30. Lola Cox, N. G.

Margaret Dances Until Dawn at Ball in Germany

BAD EILSON, Germany (LP) — Princess Margaret danced until dawn today but confided to her British officer partners her feet were killing her.

The first light of dawn streaked the sky as the pretty princess left the ball given here by the three British armed services in a climax to her three-day visit to British troops in Germany.

For more than four hours the younger sister of Queen Elizabeth II danced with some of the 600 officers invited to the ball.

Although the dance was billed as a young man's affair by Gen. Sir Richard Gale, commander of British forces in Germany, the princess danced almost exclusively with married men, most of them well over 30.

For the entire second half of the evening Margaret sat chatting with her various escorts.

Less than six hours after leaving the ball she was scheduled to board a helicopter to visit British units in the Rhur section. She was scheduled to return to Britain this afternoon.

In Memoriam

In memory of Walter Lutwinski, who was killed in action in the Southwest Pacific, 11 years ago today, July 15, 1943.

Somewhere in a solider's grave
Lies our dear one among the brave,
He never shunned his country's call
But gladly gave his life, his all,
He died, the helpless to defend
A faithful soldier's noble end.
Sadly missed by mother, Mrs. Ann Lutwinski and brother, John. 15-1

A. J. Henshaw Buys Building at Rt. 13, Blacktop Intersection

A. J. Henshaw, Carrier Mills business man, has announced the purchase of the business at the intersection of Rt. 13 and the Carrier Mills blacktop road, known as Riegel's. The purchase was made from Floyd Kimbro, Harrisburg, with the Robert Whitney real estate agency handling the transaction.

Mr. Henshaw does not plan to actively manage the business, but will continue as at present with the restaurant operated by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Ingal Horn operating the grocery and service station.

Arrested

Thelman M. Foster of Wood River last night was arrested by state and county officers on Route 45 one mile north of Harrisburg and was charged with driving while intoxicated in a complaint filed in county court today.

Senate GOP Leaders Agree to Oppose Stripping McCarthy of Chairmanships

WASHINGTON (UP) — Senate Republican leaders agreed unanimously today to oppose a promised move aimed at stripping Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) of his Senate committee chairmanships.

The decision was disclosed in a written announcement from chairman Homer Ferguson of the Senate GOP Policy Committee after an unannounced meeting of that 11-member group.

Ferguson (R-Mich.) reported the committee unanimously had adopted a resolution, after polling those members who were absent, which obviously was aimed at the anti-McCarthy move promised by Sen Ralph E. Flanders (R-Vt.).

The resolution authorized Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland to offer a motion to table any move during the balance of the 1954 session to force a Senate vote on matters involving organization and operation of the Senate.

Flanders' resolution to strip McCarthy of chairmanships is now tied up in the Senate Rules Committee. He has proposed to make a motion in the Senate to force the matter out of committee and onto the Senate floor.

Other Congress highlights:

Atomic: Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) predicted defeat of Democratic attempts to bar the Atomic Energy Commission from contracting to buy private power for the TVA system. But Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.) said he still has hope that the prohibition will be approved. The Senate started work at 10 a. m. and will plug away at least until 9 p. m. on the Atomic Energy Act revision bill.

Housing: Levittown on Long Island, one of the country's largest postwar housing developments, got FHA mortgages exceeding cost of the houses by more than five million dollars. The builders realized this sum as a profit when they sold the project. William J. Levitt, a member of the building firm, told the Senate Banking Committee that without such profit incentive no "builder over the age of 16" would have gone into the postwar housing program.

Support Fund: Undersecretary of Agriculture True D. Morse asked Congress to increase the Commodity Credit Corp.'s borrowing authority by 1 1-2 billion dollars to a total of 10 billion dollars. He said an expected "record all-crop yield" will put a heavy burden on the price support program handled by the CCC.

Projects: A House Interior subcommittee approved a bill to authorize federal loans toward construction of local reclamation projects costing five million dollars or less. Project plans would have to be approved by the Interior Department.

Says Lack Was After Brother's Wife's Money

ALLEGAN, Mich. (UP) — Dr. Robert Small, 33, who has dental offices with his brother Dr. Kenneth B. Small, testified today at his brother's first degree murder trial for the slaying of Jules Lack, 45, president of a New York air conditioning firm.

Dr. Robert Small said that Lack appeared to be "trying to get what he could" of the money belonging to Kenneth's wife.

He told of having lunch with Lack and Mrs. Edith Small, 30, after she had sued for divorce from Small because of her love for Lack.

"He had no intention of love, he wanted to get what he could out of it," the dentist's brother testified, with his eyes flashing.

"He talked money, money, money all the time. He was the type of person after every penny he could get. He tried to sell me one of his air conditioners while we were lunching."

He said he told his brother:

"I met this man. He is very smooth. Edith will be hurt.

"I told him: 'Here is a man supposedly wealthy staying at a hotel with signs in front saying low rates.' I told him 'here is a man driving a 1951 Cadillac who talks like he ought to be driving a 1958 model'."

Mrs. Small inherited $125,000 from her father. She said shortly after Lack was killed Memorial Day weekend in the luxurious home overlooking Lake Michigan that she had given him $10,000 for an investment.

Four Men Held As Suspects In Kidnaping Family

AURORA, Ill. —(UP)— Four men were held today as suspects in the abduction of an Aurora family.

The men seized Wednesday night at machinegun point at a road block near here, are Herbert C. Anderson, 20, East St. Louis; Leroy Jefferson, 21, East St. Louis; Clarence Frank Washington, 16; and James Columbus Caldwell, 19, both of Aurora. Washington confessed the abduction, police said.

Police said two of the men forced their way into the car of Mr. and Mrs. Lonie Clark at knifepoint and drove the car around the outskirts of Aurora. They robbed the Clarks of watches and other valuables while one of the couple's two sons slept in the back seat, police said.

The family escaped when Clark lunged at the men, pulling them out of the car and onto the sidewalk.

The two other men, who were following the Clark car, picked up their companions and drove away. Mrs. Clark drove to a gosoline station to alert police.

The men were seized on a tip from a person who recognized their car from a police broadcast.

Remove Five Adventurers from Raft in Pacific

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—A three-day search for the foundering raft Lehi ended early today when a banana freighter found the cheese-box craft off the California coast and took its five crewmen aboard.

The freighter Metapan radioed that the five adventurers were taken aboard despite choppy seas.

There was no immediate word of the crewmen's condition.

It appeared the Metapan was due west of Santa Maria, Calif., about 20 miles from shore and about 200 miles south of San Francisco.

The Coast Guard sent cutters racing to the scene. It reported "the raft is now floating free. The Coast Guard will destroy it as a menace to navigation."

The Lehi's ill-starred attempt to drift to Hawaii thus ended 2,300 miles from its goal.

The five crewmen, headed by DeVere Baker, 38-year-old Mormon elder, had hoped to exist on fish from the sea and water derived from a portable still and occasional rain squalls.

AFL Barred from Taking Over Paducah Union

PADUCAH, Ky. (UP) — The AFL International Association of Iron Workers and three of its agents were permanently enjoined from taking over Paducah Iron Workers Local 595 Wednesday.

The injunction was issued by McCracken Circuit Judge Holland G. Bryan.

William B. Sanders, business agent of Local 595, and seven other officers of the local were ousted by the international last December on charges of refusing to halt an unauthorized strike at a steam-power project near Joppa, Ill.

The order came in the case of Cecil Biggs and other officers of the local. They brought suit to bar the international union from carrying out its ouster order and taking over operation of the local union.

On Tuesday Federal Judge Mac Swinford ordered the Biggs case returned to McCracken Circuit Court on grounds that the federal court did not have jurisdiction.

Three other cases involving the ironworkers squabble were retained in federal court.

Father and Son Die of Injuries

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ill. —(UP)— A father and his son died here Wednesday night of injuries received in an auto accident Wednesday morning which killed a Lawrenceville man instantly.

W. M. Frazer, 48, and his son, Billy, 16, of Dudley, Mo., died of injuries received in a headon collision with a car driven by James E. Mills, 23-year-old oilfield worker who was on his way home from work.

Authorities said they were unable to question the Frazers to determine how the accident happened on a straight section of Ill. 1 five miles south of here.

Wilson Assures Services Weed Out Security Risks

WASHINGTON (UP) — Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson assured the nation today that the military services are weeding out the "minute fraction" of security risks in uniform.

In testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee, Wilson said:

"I wish to assure . . . the American people that the armed forces are in fine shape, not only as to training and equipment but as to loyalty and character."

He reviewed in general terms the Defense Department's revised security regulations which, since last April, have made members of the military subject to the same security rules as civil servants.

Belleville Man Drowns While on Wading Party; Dog Saves Companion

MASCOUTAH, Ill. —(UP)— Martin Daubach Jr., 20, of Belleville, drowned while on a wading party in the Kaskaskia River here Wednesday night, but one of his companions was saved from a similar fate by her small dog.

St. Clair County deputy sheriffs said Daubach and Mrs. Elmer Renth of Swansea were seated on a log washing their feet when Daubach slipped and fell back into deep water. Mrs. Renth grabbed for him, deputies said, and she, too, fell into the river.

Daubach drowned. But Mrs. Renth's dog, part fox terrier, jumped into the water and held onto her hair until others in the party pulled her out. Daubach's body was recovered four hours later.

Samuel Petticool, 84, Dies in White County

Samuel Petticool, 84, originally a resident of the Herald community of White county who for the past 20 years had lived in Harrisburg and Carrier Mills, died last night in the White County Nursing home in Carmi.

The body is now at the T. B. Smith funeral chapel in Ridgway and no plans have been made.

He was the father of Mrs. Ralph Foster and Clyde Petticool, both of Detroit, Mich.

Commanding Officer, First Sergeant Face Court Martial

FORT DIX, N. J. (UP)—The commanding officer of an infantry company and his administrative first sergeant faced a court martial today for making 225 trainees stand at attention for almost an hour in 90-degree heat.

Those to stand military trial are Lt. Robert S. Morgan, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Sgt. 1C Richard Whitbeck, Wilmington, Ohio. They were named in a court-martial order issued late Wednesday by Col. Earl L. Ringler, commanding officer of the 272nd Infantry regiment.

Harry Gregg died suddenly Wednesday at 10:30 p. m. at his home south of Shawneetown.

He is survived by his wife, Anna; his father, James Gregg, and one brother, Robert Gregg, all of Shawneetown.

The body is now at the Cox funeral home in Ridgway and funeral plans are incomplete.

Two Executed in Nevada Gas Chamber

CARSON CITY, Nev. (UP)—The state of Nevada held its first double execution in history today.

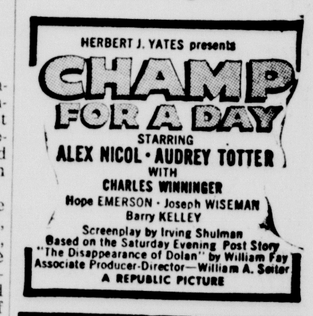

Two men were put to death for strangling a motorist who gave them a ride.

They were Frank Pedrini, 47, a once-paroled killer from Santa Rosa, Calif., and Leroy Linden, 35, former Los Angeles truck driver.

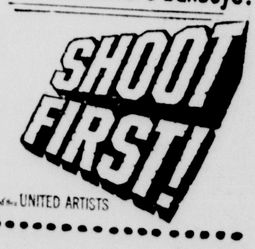

They were executed for murdering Clarence M. Dodd, 36-year-old carpenter from Lancaster, Calif., last October.

Probe Death of 17-Months-Old Girl; Body Bruised

SPRINGFIELD —(AP)— The coroner, state's attorney and sheriff of Sangamon County today investigated the death of a 17-months-old girl, whose badly bruised and emaciated body was brought to a hospital Wednesday.

Joyce Ann Parrish, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Parrish, Loami, Ill., was pronounced dead on arrival at St. John's Hospital.

Coroner W. C. Telford said there were "old and new" bruises on the child's head, face and back, including a black eye.

A preliminary report by a pathologist showed the child died from a brain hemorrhage, Telford said.

Telford said he and investigators from the state's attorney's and sheriff's offices would visit the parents' home today, "inspect the condition of the home and rest of the family and talk to the neighbors."

The Parrish couple has three other children at home.

Telford said Parrish, a farm hand and truck driver, said he found the child dead about 9 a. m. Wednesday when he went to wake her. He said he tried to summon a doctor, then called the ambulance to take the child to the hospital.

Telford said the parents stated the child had taken numerous falls recently which caused the bruises. The parents said they had the child treated for its underweight condition and the treating physician said the child was suffering from maluntrition, Telford said.

The coroner said the child's body was "completely dehydrated" when it was examined at the hospital.

Cool Air Brings Relief from Heat

The heat-breaking storms struck hardest at Mifflin County, Pennsylvania, where a tornado ripped over a recreation hall, killing one woman and injuring nine young persons.

About 50 persons in the hall were unhurt when the twister caved in a section of its roof. The storm caused hundreds of thousands of dollars' damage elsewhere in the area.

Lightning Kills Two

A 20-year-old youth was killed by lightning at Lansing, Mich., and a lightning bolt killed a young farm worker near Torrington, Wyo. At Wapakoneta, Ohio, a 9-year-old boy was killed when a barn where he had sought refuge collapsed.

The heat broke with dramatic suddenness at New York, where winds up to 60 miles per hour shrieked through the streets so loudly that scores of persons called police to ask if they were air raid sirens.

In the Manhattan financial district street debris was swept so high that it looked like a ticker tape demonstration in reverse.

To Discuss Unemployment With Gov. Stratton

—was discussed but no action was taken.

McFarlin, head of the Finance committee which is handling this matter, said that although the rabies inspector hasn't been appointed he believed that Saline county is in better shape than other counties around because there has been a vaccination program in Saline for the past seven years because of the work of the Harrisburg Humane society and because of its shelter setup here.

Chairman Smith said he had noted that there were four counties where there was no set-up as yet and added: "With the tax rate we have here, we just wonder if it is absolutely necessary for the amount of money it will take to set it up."

He added that there are two veterinarians in the county who don't want the job "and we have been unable to get an inspector."

McFarlin then brought up the situation where "people in town drop dogs in the country and people in the country bring dogs to town and drop them," saying he believed there are laws that prohibit such practices.

Congress Warned President May Veto Postal Pay Bill Unless Mail Rates Boosted

WASHINGTON (UP) — Administration spokesmen are warning congressmen that if they don't boost mail rates President Eisenhower will veto a pay increase for postal employes, key senators reported today.

The fate of the postal pay bill is expected to decide what is done with a follow-up bill to increase the salaries of other federal Civil Service employes.

The pay and postal rate bills, and their resulting effects on the federal debt ceiling, are among the unsettled issues bothering Republican congressional leaders in their faltering drive to adjourn Congress by July 31.

These three subjects were the principal topics discussed at Mr. Eisenhower's weekly conference with GOP leaders Wednesday.

The Senate Democratic Policy Committee met late Wednesday and reviewed the unfinished legislation on the administration program. Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson reported that its members doubted Congress will quit before Aug. 15.

May Offer Amendment

Senate Republican policy makers then held a session and reported that they felt they still could hit their July 31 target.

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield attended Wednesday's White House conference to discuss postal salaries and postal rates. Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey attended to discuss the administration request for an increase in the 272 billion dollar ceiling on the national debt.

Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland reported that it was the consensus of those present that any salary increase for postal employes should be coupled with an increase in postal rates. He said a postal rate increase amendment may be offered on the Senate floor to any postal pay bill.

The administration requested a 250 million dollar increase in politically touchy postal rates a year ago, but Congress failed to act. Included in this program was the proposal to require a four-cent stamp for out-of-town first class mail.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

Pledge yourself to be a safe driver. Illinois State Police officers, carrying out Governor Stratton's highway safety campaign, are accepting pledges "to drive with courtesy and safety" from individual drivers.

Each driver who pledges, in the presence of an officer to be a safe driver receives a windshield sticker in the form of a six-pointed gold star with the words, "Safety Pledge" and "Illinois State Highway Police" on the front.

On the reverse side, the driver enters the date and his signature. The signature of Phil M. Brown, superintendent of the State Police, appears there, also. Superintendent Brown has pointed out that the stickers will not be given to just anyone who asks for them. The individual driver must go through the formality of promising, in an officer's presence, that he will drive safely. Those who are obviously not safe drivers will not receive the stickers.

Pledge yourself to safety—and keep your pledge.

Dodgers Open Road Trip With 2-1, 12-Inning Victory Over the Braves

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

Ol' Hugh Casey was the Brooklyn Dodgers' relief pitching hero in pennant years gone by, so the Dodgers were elated today that their dramatic triumph in the opening game of their big road trip was given to them by the man they call "the new Casey" — Jim Hughes.

Hughes turned in the most brilliant relief chore of the year for the Dodgers Wednesday night when he waddled out of the bullpen to pitch hitless ball for four innings and lead Brooklyn to a 2-1 12-inning triumph at Milwaukee.

It was a big morale-boosting triumph for the Brooks, for they regard the road trip just starting as their big chance to prick the New York Giants' "pennant bubble."

More Ways Than One

And Hughes, a jovial 210-pounder nicknamed "The Happy Hippo" by his mates, was the big man in more ways than one for the beleaguered Dodgers. He took over in the ninth inning and allowed only three walks the rest of the way. Although it was only his fourth triumph in 32 relief appearances, it was the 16th game that the Dodgers credit him with saving.

The victory, the Dodgers' fourth in five games since their last disastrous series against the Giants, cut the Giants' first-place lead to five games.

Duke Snider drove in both of the Dodger runs, in the first inning and the 12th, with sacrifice flies to deal a heart-breaking loss to righthander Lew Burdette of the Braves, who pitched all the way to suffer his 10th defeat against seven victories.

Gilliam Sends Team Ahead

Junior Gilliam opened the game for the Dodgers with a bunt single, moved to third on a single by PeeWee Reese, and rode home on Snider's fly. Dodger starter Russ Meyer made that single tally stand up all the way to the last half of the eighth inning when the Braves tied the game on a walk to Bill Bruton, Johnny Logan's sacrifice, and Hank Aaron's single.

In the decisive 12th, Gilliam singled with one out and Reese again moved him to third with a single. Snider's fly that Aaron hauled down in deep left field delivered Gilliam easily with the winning run.

That was the only action in the major leagues Wednesday.

Yankees Depend Little On Reynolds, Lopat

By Carl Lundquist
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK—(UP)—The New York Yankees may depend less and less hereafter on veterans Allie Reynolds and Ed Lopat in a "win while rebuilding" drive toward their sixth straight pennant, General Manager George Weiss indicated today.

"I said in the spring that this would be the year for the rebuilding of our pitching staff and it goes more than ever now," he said. "We have to look ahead to the day when we no longer will have our veterans with us."

The emphasis placed on youth in the pitching department by Manager Casey Stengel is pointed up in the fact that in the nine-game Yankee winning streak still intact, neither Reynolds nor Lopat turned in a victory. In fact Reynolds hasn't won a game since June 25, the last time he turned in a complete job, while Lopat's last victory was on June 13, more than a month ago.

Lopat Chased In Five

Although Lopat has a record of 7-3, he has been knocked out of the box five times since then. Reynolds, who hasn't been charged with a defeat since opening day, has a 9-1 won and lost mark. He has been mangled in his last two starts, although the Yankees wound up winning both games.

With their long-time aces suddenly so ineffective, it is well nigh incredible that the Yankees have been winging their way to the top and now stand only half a game behind Cleveland.

There were seven different winning pitchers during the nine game streak, five of them key men in the Weiss "win while rebuilding campaign." Rookies Bob Wiesler and Bob Grim each won two while Whitey Ford, Tom Morgan and Harry Byrd along with relief pitchers Marlin Stuart and Bob Kuzava scored one victory each.

Stengel Favors Wiesler

Stengel has shown a particular liking for young Wiesler, the 23-year-old southpaw recalled recently from Kansas City. He has won two games since coming back and he pitches tonight against Baltimore ahead of several other veterans on the staff who have had more rest, including Lopat and Reynolds.

"You may be looking at the best left hander in our league when you see Wiesler," said catcher Yogi Berra, who is impressed with his speed and his improved control. "If he can just get that ball over nobody is gonna beat him very often."

Released by Pirates

PITTSBURGH (UP) — Luis Marquez headed back to Toledo of the American Association today following his outright release by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Marquez came to the Pirates in a deal which sent outfielder Hal Rice to the Chicago Cubs. The Cubs obtained Marquez from Toledo earlier in the year. The Puerto Rican outfielder formerly saw service with Cincinnati and Milwaukee, both of the National League.

University to Offer Course in Housewifery

BATON ROUGE, La. — (UP) — Want to learn how to be a housewife?

Louisiana State University will offer a course in it, beginning in September. The new curriculum, to be called "Family and Community Living," will be designed for girls whose main desire is to make a career out of housekeeping.

Gen. Troy Middleton, the president decided there was too much emphasis on courses for men despite the fact that practically all classes were open to women as well. The new course will include classes in music, art, literature, speech, government and, of course, home economics.

OUCH!—Davey Williams of the Giants had a pained expression when he caught one baseball and a foot in the stomach as the Cubs' Ralph Kiner slid safely into second base on a double to left field. (NEA)

STRATEGIST AT WORK—Leo Durocher is having field days in the coach's box these afternoons and nights, signaling, clapping, cheering and waving the Giants on to victory. (NEA)

Walker's, Ronnie's, Athletic House Win Kiwanis Tilts

Walker's Cleaners won their eighth straight game yesterday as they defeated the Coca-Colas, 12-4, in Kiwanis league play. In other games Ronnie's Studio defeated the Lions, 22-9, and the Athletic House nine nudged the Shells, 7-5.

Hatcher hurled a two hitter for Walker's as the winners collected seven hits off Henshaw and Bottomley with Henshaw the loser.

Ronnie's nine pushed across eight runs in the first inning and were never in trouble in their 22-9 victory. Maynard was the winner, aided by the hitting of Price who collected three for three.

The Shells suffered their second loss in two days in the 7-5 defeat by the Athletic House. Foster allowed just four hits in gaining the victory. Hefner was the loser. Boyeytt sparked the winners at bat with two hits and Hassett also homered for the winners.

Mrs. Roy Seel, Successful Orchardist, Says Harrisburg Could Gain by Two Businesses

Urges Basket, Box Factory, One For Jelly and Jam

By Alta Porter

There are two businesses which Harrisburg could go after successfully and profitably, according to Ernest Mollhagan and his sister, Mrs. Roy Seel, successful southern Illinois fruit growers and buyers. One is a basket and box factory and the other is a jelly and jam factory.

To obtain the baskets with which they pack thousands of bushels of apples to the Southwater Market district in Chicago, they are required to import the fruit containers from Anna, and to market the No. 2 apples they must be packed and shipped to Vincennes, Ind., the nearest jelly and jam fruit buyer.

Cost of setting up a basket and box factory would be nominal in comparison to the number it would employ practically the year around, Mr. Mollhagan said. Machinery which puts the plywood into basket shape is made at Sarnac Machine Co., Benton Harbor, Mich., and by St. Joseph's Machine Co., St. Joseph, Mich., Mr. Mollhagan said.

To pass this information on is in keeping with the tradition set up by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Seel, a city couple, who came to southern Illinois in 1920, which was in the early years of their married life. They bought a Johnson county hilltop farm, set out a young orchard and devoted their lives to making into a bit of paradise on earth the 100 acres that was their initial purchase at Ozark.

Mr. Seel died suddenly at Christmas time in 1946. He loved southern Illinois and had roamed this and other states as a fruit buyer. He had spent some time in Florida buying vegetables in season and he knew what he wanted when he chose to locate at Ozark.

His wife is a namesake of Mrs. Ada Sesser, and the town of Sesser, Illinois was named for her son, John. She was as enthusiastic as her husband about the choice of their homesite, a part of the grain farm that composed a section settled by William Reeves, for whom the village of Reevesville on the Illinois Central was named.

They chose a spot adjacent to the timbered acres on their tract, away from the most travelled highway.

There they commenced in 1924 to build a house. At first it was just one large pine paneled room 20x30. Mrs. Seel, a person of great charm, sings alto and plays her own piano accompaniment. Soon the people of the neighborhood found themselves grouped around the large fireplace in winter and the picnic area in summer. As the years went by the grain farm was transformed into an orchard and the residential area was landscaped with trees, shrubs, a rambler rose hedge bordering a lake, in front of which are ornamental white metal chairs and evergreens, forming an outdoor living room with fragrant hybrid tea roses and flowering shrubs about. In the foreground is a flagpole and the picnic area, where tables, swings, and an outdoor oven attest to casual entertaining.

Flying squirrels inhabit the trees around this area, and at dusk on summer evenings can be seen gliding from one tree to another. Amid this tranquility, one can sit still enough to attract the curiosity of a whip-poor-will, who will inquisitively come closer with his plaintive call until he satisfies himself that a friend who will not molest him sits there. Deer released in the Shawnee Forest are also to be seen occasionally along the road between the packing house and the Seel residence.

SORTING TABLE AT OZARK where Mrs. Roy Seel operates a 179 acre apple orchard. Mrs. Seel and her sister-in-law Mrs. Ernest Mollhagan in foreground.

MRS. SEEL, WHO IS "VEEP" IN JOHNSON COUNTY HOME BUREAU, "jeeps" over her 179 acre apple orchard with St. Bernard dog as faithful escort and her brother, Ernest Mollhagan as occasional escort, and chief assistant in fruit marketing business.

(Alta Porter Photos)

As dainty with her pink and white coloring as one of the apple blossoms from her own trees, Mrs. Seel is accompanied on her job of overseeing the orchard by a huge St. Bernard dog, which rides with her when she drives the jeep from one part of the farm to the other. He also loves the backseat of the farm automobile driven by Ernest Mollhagen.

The Seel house grew from one room until it became a modern functional home, so attractive that it was the subject in 1943 of a special article with pictures in the Illinois Agricultural record.

Mrs. Seel retains her membership in Moody church, Chicago, but is active in the Baptist churches of her community, and attends regularly and sings in the choir, also as a soloist at church and in the Woman's club of Ozark-New Burnside of which she is a member. She was the first Johnson county president of Home Bureau and is at present vice-president in the county organization. She has held various offices in the 24th district of the Illinois Federation of Woman's clubs and is at present district historian, appointed to that office by Mrs. Roy Milburn, district president, whose home is at New Burnside and who is a very dear friend.

Mr. Seel built up such a volume of business as a fruit and vegetable buyer that he enlisted her brothers, Arthur and Ernest, in the business. Arthur Mollhagen settled at Ozark also and was a great help to Mrs. Seel during his lifetime. He also died in 1951.

Ernest, who lives at Carbondale, and whose wife is assistant postmistress of the Southern Illinois university postoffice, has given her seasonal assistance at the harvest time each year.

Two packing sheds are operated by Mrs. Seel and her brother. One on the Seel farm at Ozark, which now numbers 179 acres, and the other shed at Hardin, in Calhoun county, Illinois.

As soon as the apple harvest at Ozark is over — it begins in June and lasts six weeks — they go to Hardin to buy and pack apples from there. Several whole orchards of apples are handled annually at the Seel-Mollhagan shed at Hardin.

At Ozark the harvest begins with Early Transparents and then the Duchess, Whealthies and the Williams Reds are harvested in the order mentioned.

The packing shed is a compact well arranged place. Apples from the orchards are deposited at the east side of the shed, and from there are moved to sorting tables. A belt and brush system conveys and polishes them with a shine that would be the envy of "teacher's pet." Then they roll gently through slots that sort them for size and into baskets which are covered in seconds and stacked for truck transportation to Chicago and Vincennes.

The packers are neighbors and friends of Mrs. Seel. Some are young high school students who will soon be scattered far and wide at vacation employment and higher education takes them from the farm.

Sanitation and safety are practiced and are stressed throughout the orchard and the packing shed, as the lady orchardist insists on good housekeeping practices on the land and in the shed.

Hers is a business which is a way of life that she finds gratifying by the planting, replacing and tending the trees in the fall and winter. Planting a tree, says Mrs. Seel gives one a feeling of fellowship with God and nature. Tending them and defending them from the pests and disease that beset man's best efforts in horticulture demands constant and thorough application of experience and scientific knowledge. Combining the skill of the mechanic who invented spraying equipment, with that of the chemist who compounds insecticides, and with that of entomologists who search out the beneficial insects and plant them to combat man's enemies in plant and insect life, is an absorbing occupation.

For instance, after man had hailed DDT as the insecticide to end practically all pests in the orchard, a Machiavellian moth bites off and spits out the sprayed peel and then tunnels in for a full meal.

Accurate and timely use of knowledge of these things, and the bounty of nature so aided, brings in the springtime a mantle of lacy fragrance in blooms which cover the hills of Johnson county and promise fruit and prosperity to the orchardist. In the midst of such beauty and communion with the forces of the earth, one feels a kinship with divinity, Mrs. Seel says.

As the season advances, the laden boughs of the trees bend earthward as though eager for the pickers to relieve them of their burden of fruit. Then comes the harvest, the bargaining that puts southern Illinois fruit on the table across the country, giving the business a national scope that unites the grower, the community and the region with the nation.

Grateful for the life of Mr. Seel and all that he did to surround her with the comforts of life and to prepare her for understanding service among the people of southern Illinois, Mrs. Seel finds a tranquility and acquiescence to life's joys and sorrows and a deep appreciation of sincere friendship. This is only to be found when one gives that which is their best to the community.

"The best," has been the watchword at the Seel packing sheds ever since they opened. Each person is instructed always to pack only what they would be glad to receive were they buying, instead of selling. Under this rule the banner of the Seel orchards will surely continue to wave without end.

KNOW YOUR FORMER NEIGHBOR:

Charles T. Flota, Former State's Attorney, Runs Motel in N. Mexico

Truth or Consequences, New Mexico, now claims a former resident of Harrisburg who commenced his climb up the legal ladder in Saline county and who twice marched off to World Wars to serve his country nobly.

He is Charles Therman Flota.

Born in Norris City sixty years ago, the son of George and Sarah Ann (Huff) Flota, he was deprived of his parents early in life. His father died before he obtained the age of three and by the time he had reached school age, his mother had also passed away.

Charles Flota was taken into the home of the late George C. Healy and Mrs. Julia Healy. Mrs. Healy, who is actually his cousin, became his foster mother. The family moved to Harrisburg in 1910, and Mr. Healy became associated with the Sahara coal company, working for them until his death in March of this year. Mrs. Healy still resides at the family home here on East Dayton street.

Young Flota excelled in oratory during his high school days at HTHS and recalls as one of his most vivid memories the hours of learning under Harry Taylor. He was graduated from the local high school in 1913.

Of his boyhood days in Harrisburg, Flota also recalls working on the street paving gang with "Jaybird" Wallace and his friendship with Fred Isham, foreman at the Harrisburg car shop. He also worked intermittently as mule skinner, farmer and railroader in and around Harrisburg.

Later, he attended Kent College of Law at Chicago, receiving his LLD degree in 1918. During these busy years, he also found time to serve in World War I with Battery F, 48th Artillery CAC. As a private first class, he was sent overseas to France with the American Expeditionary Force (First Army Replacement). For this, he was later entitled to wear the victory medal with clasp.

But of his World War I experiences, his most memorable events occurred, he relates, while crossing the Atlantic. While on watch, he sighted a German U boat, reported it and saw it sunk by naval action.

After tthe war, he returned to Harrisburg and practiced law. He served this community as city attorney and the county as assistant State's Attorney. In 1924 he was elected to the office of State's Attorney and served until 1928.

In July 1925, he married Estelle Yewell, of Golconda, who had been a school teacher in the city and nearby area.

In 1942 he received the LLM and JD degrees from Blackstone College of Law (extension). And in 1944, he entered the junior year, by examination, a class on contracts and renegotiation at Ann Arbor, Michigan, graduating shortly thereafter.

During World War II, Flota served with the U. S. Air Force in Europe and rose to the rank of Lt. Colonel, holding the title of a Judge Advocate. His service ribbons include the Army of Occupation, American Defense, EAME, and World War II victory medal. He also holds the expert medal for following arms: Pistol, both left and right hands, rifle and carbine.

Probably his most memorable episode in World War II came with the witnessing of the trial of Goering and other high Nazi officials at Nuernberg, Germany. He has traveled in 11 European countries, Mexico and Canada.

After returning from World War II, Flota and his wife moved to Truth and Consequences. Together, the two operate a motel there. Mr. Flota also practices law, having been admitted to the bar in New Mexico in 1950.

Charles T. Flota

A member of the Baptist church and Masonic fraternity, his hobbies are hunting, fishing and gem stone collecting. Of the latter, Mr. Flota refers to himself as a "rock hound." The Flotas make it a practice to visit in Harrisburg and surrounding community every other year.

Besides his foster mother, Mrs. Healy, other near relatives who reside in this area are Earnie Flota, a cousin, Harrisburg; Mrs. Enos Lamb, cousin, Eldorado, and F. H. Flota, brother, West Frankfort.

Mr. Flota would probably tell you that a great deal of his success stems from kindness and generosity of his foster parents. Had his parents lived, we are confident they would have found much joy and happiness in their son's accomplishments.

HONORED WITH RECEPTION—Rev. J. D. McCarty and Mrs. McCarty shown at a reception given in their honor Tuesday evening by members of the McKinley Avenue Baptist church, where he began his pastorate in May. Gifts were presented to the McCartys, and refreshments of punch and cake were served from a table covered in green and decorated with yellow gladioli and huckleberry. Leo Reed, chairman, Paul Hilliard and Kenneth Smith composed a committee planning the reception. (Register Staff Photo)

Lady, To Improve As Auto Driver, Talk Less, Please

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(U.P.)—The woman driver, with a road record already better than man's, can improve even more if she'll just not talk so much.

So says Jean Lee, director of the American Academy for Safe Driving, where both sexes are taught how to drive and safely.

With the vacation season meaning more women drivers on the highways, Miss Lee emphasizes this warning: Don't talk so much.

"A woman driver, especially if she's travelling with other women, gets to gabbing, and she forgets to watch the road."

Too much talk is one fault. The other two which plague the woman, she said, are over-caution and over-driving—trying to cover too much mileage in one day.

No woman should drive more than 400 miles a day . . . 450 at the top," she said. "Break up the trip every hour or two hours, with a stop for coffee. And take a good stretch."

Miss Lee quotes statistics from life insurance companies to show that women are safer drivers than men. In fatal accidents 91 per cent of the time the drivers are men, she said. In non-fatals, the percentage is 88.

The American Automobile Association said that the latest figures it has shows there are close to 67,000,000 motorists, 29 per cent of them women.

If you're planning a motor trip this summer, Miss Lee gives these suggestions.

See that the car has a thorough check-out before you start. Check tires, battery, and general working order. Once on the highway, have the tires checked and rotated periodically.

Drive a safe distance behind the car ahead. Driving experts rate the distance of two car lengths as safe if you're travelling 20 miles an hour. By the time speed is up to 40, the distance should be 15 to 20 lengths, she said.

Wear low heels and loose skirts or slacks for driving. High heels, she said, are not safe because they do not give a true feeling of the pressure being applied to the accelerator. And, a high heel easily can get caught on the pedal, causing a sudden burst of speed.

She recommended that women leave off the dangling charm bracelets and long, full-cut sleeves. Either can catch on the gear shift or interfere with steering.

Night driving after a day at the beach is hazardous.

"Tests show," she explained, "that night vision is reduced as much as 50 per cent from a day of sun glare. It takes at least eight hours for the eyesight to get back to normal."

Youngsters Resent Advice with Money

NEW YORK — (UP) — Fathers give too many lectures when they hand out the allowances, children from 10 to 18 complained in a recent survey.

The majority of young persons questioned said they would rather get their allowance from their mothers and skip the paternal lecture, the Youth Research Institute reported.

"When it comes allowance time I get a lesson in economics," one boy complained. Another teenager said, "it looks as if I'm going to go on paying for the tough times my father had when he was a kid."

The survey showed mothers do hand out more allowances than fathers. Only 29 per cent of the youngsters polled received their spending money from Pop.

Harrisburg Vacationers In Michigan Have Get-Together

A number of Pankeyville people, who were vacationing in Michigan, met recently for a wiener roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Fulkerson of Pontiac. A pleasant three hours were spent in renewing old acquaintances and taking moving pictures.

Those from Pankeyville attending were Mary Shell, Bettie Norman, Maxine Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shacklette, Hattie Moyer, Ruth Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Kalhe Sadler and children.

Those attending from Pontiac were Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsey and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ulan Mann and baby, Mr. and Mrs. George Shook, Vivian Younger, Nina McAnnally, Lucy Brokow, Conrad and the host and hostess.

High School Home Bureau Meets With Mrs. Walter Unsell

Mrs. Walter Unsell was hostess to the High School Home Bureau unit Tuesday evening. Roll call was answered with "A Vacation I'd Like to Take."

The minor topic, given by Mrs. Louis Kato, was on "Danish Pastry," and the major topic, "How to Freeze Cooked and Baked Foods," was presented by Mrs. Dave Evans and Mrs. Willard Morse who baked chocolate cakes and lemon chiffon pies which were served wth a drink for refreshments.

A guest for the evening was Mrs. Leo Morris.

The next meeting will be an annual family picnic at the home of Mrs. Willard Morse.

Members And Families of Garden Club Enjoy Picnic

The members of the Evergreen Garden club and their families enjoyed a picnic Tuesday evening at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russler. Around 50 were present.

For entertainment the children went swimming and boating in the lake. For the picnic supper the tables were covered with red and white checked cloths and centered with baskets of flowers.

The committee in charge was composed of Mrs. Velmont McDaniel, Mrs. Morris Skaggs, Mrs. Dean Hill and Mrs. J. B. Clark.

This was the last meeting of the club until September.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patterson, Tucson, Ariz., former residents of Harrisburg, are here visiting friends and relatives.

June Employment Report Shows Increase in Illinois

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — The State Employment Service and Division of Unemployment Compensation said today that private non-farm employment in Illinois increased 11,100 from mid-May to mid-June.

The mid-May employment figure was 2,953,600 and the mid-June total 2,964,700.

However, the mid-June figure was still 153,400 below the total Illinois private non-farm employment of June, 1953.

Non - manufacturing industries employed 11,700 more in June than in May, including 9,900 in construction, 1,700 in finance-insurance - real estate and 1,200 in transportation - communication-public utilities.

Manufacturing employment was down 600 in the month, and was 137,100 below the June, 1953, figure. Hard or durable goods firms, handling longevity products of metal, wood, etc., employed 4,600 fewer workers in June than in May; but firms handling soft goods, or quickly used products, employed 4,000 more.

The June figures showed increases of 2 cents in average Illinois hourly earnings, one tenth hour in the weekly work week and 65 cents in average weekly earnings.
